

About Us

Last Updated Friday, 14 May 2010

West of Scotland Regional Equality Council (WSREC) is a voluntary organisation and registered as a charity limited by Guarantee as of 1st April 2006. WSREC is one of the four Regional Equality Councils in Scotland and its area of operation covers almost half of Scotland with twelve local authorities. The area has the largest Minority Ethnic population with many diverse needs including the specific needs of Asylum Seeker/Refugee and new Central & Eastern European communities in conjunction with the established minority ethnic communities. WSREC services focus on Promoting Good Community Relations between all residents in our area of operation. Other activities include advocacy, policy and community development, campaigning and promoting equality and justice for all and advice. Additionally WSREC has diversified into equality and diversity Training and Consultancy.